

ST. MATTHEW'S GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH

ANNUAL PRAYER RETREAT

"Learning to Listen; Learning to Love"

THEME:

"Learning to Listen; Learning to Love."

This Lent-Desire to Learn to Listen to God that results in learning to love others-All within the experience of Communal Worship and the stillness of Personal Prayer within Eastern Christianity.

WHEN & WHERE:

Saturday, April 6, 2019

9am-3pm

St. Matthew's Greek Orthodox Church

8477 Allentown Pike

Blandon, PA 19510

OTHER INFO:

Refreshments and a Lenten lunch will be provided. Suggested donation:

$20 @ person. Please contact

Fr Demetrius Nicoloudakis

Demetri7@aol.com; call (484) 955-1334.

SPEAKER:

Fr. Anthony Perkins has dedicated his life to love of God and neighbor. In order to serve them more effectively, he has spent a lot of time learning to listen. He is the priest of St. Mary's (Pokrova) in Allentown, a professor at St. Sophia Seminary in New Jersey, a retired Military Intelligence Warrant Officer (Reserves), and the married father of four. His personal blog and podcast is OrthoAnalytika and his Ancient Faith Radio podcast is "Good Guys Wear Black."

